Fayette Cares is dedicated to empowering those in need with solutions to end homelessness, break the cycle of domestic violence, and create stability and self-sufficiency from crisis.

Fayette Cares' emergency shelter program helps families bridge the gap from homelessness to permanent housing. We provide shelter, budgeting plans, life skills, financial counseling and links to essential resources. We also help stabilize families in financial crisis with emergency shelter, food, clothing, and other essentials.

Sadly, Tennessee is ranked as the 4th worst state in the nation for domestic violence crimes. Fayette Cares proactively works to stop domestic violence before it happens or escalates, through court outreach, dating violence classes for the community, and collaborations with law enforcement.

Typically a sold out crowd of 500 guests from Fayette, Shelby and surrounding counties attend, with hundreds more supporting the event through auction donations and volunteerism.
